Statement of Work

a. PROGRAMS RECEIVING AND PROVIDING DATA

The Colville Confederated Tribes, herein referred to as the "Tribe", is the data recipient; contact information is listed on page number one under Indian Nation Name.

DSHS is the data provider; contact information is listed on page number one under DSHS Administration.

b. PURPOSE

DSHS Division of Child Support (DCS) shall provide Child Support and Temporary Assistance to Needy Families (TANF) program employees of the Tribe staff with read-only web based secured access to the DCS Support Enforcement Management System (SEMS). The access to SEMS, for Child Support program purposes, will assist the Tribe's Child Support and/or TANF program in administering their caseload.

c. DESCRIPTION OF THE DATA

Designated staff of the Tribe shall have limited read-only web based secured access to SEMS cases where the Tribe is coded on the SEMS case. DSHS will provide the Tribe's staff with electronic inquiry only access to Child Support information for verification of child support cases, family relationships, and financial history.

d. ACCESS TO DATA

(1) METHOD OF ACCESS/TRANSFER

Designated staff shall access data through a workstation attached to the Intergovernmental Network and require a unique log-in ID and password

User identification numbers and passwords obtained from DCS are required in order for the authorized tribal staff to log on to SEMS. The SEMS password must be updated after 90 days and regularly thereafter.

(2) PERSONS HAVING ACCESS TO DATA

The Tribe shall ensure that only their Child Support and TANF employees have access to DCS records when necessary to fulfill the Child Support requirements of their program. The Tribe shall provide names of staff members whose duties require access to SEMS and provide updates within 14 calendar days. The authorized staff names shall be provided to the DCS Program Manager.

When each staff member logs on to SEMS for the first time, that individual will be required to view the "on-line" confidentiality statement before their access is granted. Each Tribe staff member that has access to SEMS must acknowledge the online confidentiality statement. SEMS staff will electronically receive confirmation when staff acknowledge the form.

All DCS records are confidential and shall only be used for Child Support requirements of Child Support and TANF programs.

(3) FREQUENCY OF DATA EXCHANGE

The exchange of data is accomplished through on-line transactions that may occur whenever the application is available.

e. SECURITY OF DATA

(1) Data Protection

The Tribe shall take reasonable precautions to secure against unauthorized physical and electronic access to data. The data will be stored on workstations with access limited to authorized personnel through the use of unique logon IDs and hardened passwords.

(2) The Tribe shall notify DCS within two (2) business days if unauthorized disclosure is discovered by the Tribe.

(3) Data Disposition

The Tribe shall remove data received under this agreement from so that it cannot be recovered.

Media and associated acceptable data destruction methods are:

- a. Hard drives (workstation and network) – Zero fill or Wipe utility to destroy data in file space.
- b. Floppy disks – Physical destruction of the media.
- c. Magnetic tapes (reels or cartridges) – Degaussing or cross-cut shredding of the tape
- d. Compact Disks (CDs), Digital Video Disks (DVDs) – Scour readable (label) side with coarse abrasive or shred.
- e. Zip disks, JAZZ disk, and other removable magnetic media (other than floppy disks) – Zerofill or Wipe utility.
- f. Flash memory and memory cards (compact flash, secure digital, memory stick, etc.) – Zero fill or Wipe utility.

Data provided by DSHS remains DSHS property. To ensure that unauthorized individuals cannot access client information, the Tribe will dispose disks and printed documents from the electronic file in a secure manner, such as shredding of records. The Tribe will promptly destroy the data when the work is completed for which the information was required.

f. CONFIDENTIALITY AND NONDISCLOSURE

- (1) In accordance with 42 USC 654 (26), RCW 26.23.120, RCW 74.04.060, and WAC 388-14A-2105-2160 any information concerning individuals who owe a support obligation or for whom support enforcement services are being provided is private and confidential.
- (2) The Tribe is authorized to use any information obtained under the terms of this agreement for Child Support purposes. Sharing of the information may occur in accordance with the provisions listed above, including court proceedings. In accordance with provision 45 CFR 307.13, information shall be treated with such degree of confidentiality as is required by the federal social security law. Any personal use of client information is strictly prohibited.
- (3) The Tribe shall not disclose, transfer, or sell any information as described in this agreement to any party in whole or in part, except as provided by law, or to any individual or agency not specifically authorized by this agreement.
- (4) Each Tribal Child Support and/or TANF employee, who has access to SEMS data, will accept the federal and state data access requirements listed in the yearly on-line Confidentiality Statement – Tribal Employee.
